Graduate Students! Career and Internship Fair September 10-12

Graduate students from any graduate program are invited to Ohio State's first all-university career fair, Sept. 10-12 in the Ohio Union. This fair gives employers access to all Ohio State students--graduate and undergraduate. Encourage your graduate students to prepare. Have them take advantage of career resources in your program and college. They should also check out online resources available from Career Connection, Buckeye Careers, and the Versatile PhD. Face-to-face consultations are available in Career Connection. We will send out more information as it becomes available. Contact: careerquestions@osu.edu.

Visit the Versatile PhD Career Information and Advice

Please encourage graduate students and alumni to explore the resources about different career paths available to them via the Versatile PhD's PhD Career Finder. This function supports career exploration by discipline. The Graduate School subscribes to the Versatile PhD. Our subscription gives graduate students, alumni, faculty, and staff access to premium content from PhDs already working in careers outside the academy. More.

Peletonia 2014

Peletonia fellowships help students and trainees pursue cancer-research interests

Perhaps the greatest benefit of the Peletonia Fellowship Program is fueling interest in cancer research among Ohio State students at all levels of training. The program enables promising students who might one day become independent cancer researchers to explore their interests in the labs of faculty mentors. The program had awarded 225 student fellowships by the end of 2013.

Register for Peletonia at pelotonia.org. Tuesday (7/8) is an important deadline for those considering Riding in Peletonia 14. Registration for riders is $100 through July 8; on July 9 the registration fee goes up to $150 and the commitment to fundraising (based on the ride selected) cannot be retracted. Once you register for Peletonia, make sure you connect yourself and your peloton to Team Buckeye.
