Peletonia 2014

Pelotonia fellowships help students and trainees pursue cancer-research interests

Perhaps the greatest benefit of the Peletonia Fellowship Program is fueling interest in cancer research among Ohio State students at all levels of training. The program enables promising students who might one day become independent cancer researchers to explore their interests in the labs of faculty mentors. The program had awarded 225 student fellowships by the end of 2013.

Register for Peletonia at pelotonia.org. Tuesday (7/8) is an important deadline for those considering Riding in Peletonia 14. Registration for riders is $100 through July 8; on July 9 the registration fee goes up to $150 and the commitment to fundraising (based on the ride selected) cannot be retracted. Once you register for Peletonia, make sure you connect yourself and your peloton to Team Buckeye.
