Idealist Grad Fair
Idealist.org is a nonprofit organization that aims to match those interested in public service with organizations that have job or volunteer opportunities available. I encourage you to check out their website by going to www.idealist.org and checking out their Mission and Vision, as well as their organizational history, their Idealist Careers site, and finally, their Grad Fairs information. Although well-suited for Public Administration, their events often have representatives from business programs, law, healthcare, education, STEM, general graduate admissions, and many other fields.
For the first time ever, Idealist.org is hosting a Graduate School Fair in the state of Ohio. They have chosen The Ohio State University as their location and The John Glenn School of Public Affairs will be the official host for the event. This is a very exciting opportunity for Ohio State and the Columbus area to show off our wonderfully educated students to those looking to recruit them.

The Columbus Idealist Grad Fair will be held on Monday, October 27th, from 5:00-8:00pm in the Blackwell Inn and Conference Center on OSU's campus.
