

AQUEOUS HUMOR DYNAMICS STUDY

IRB: 2020H0284 Version 2.0 and Approved 21AUG2021

Glaucoma and High Eye Pressure

Ohio State Department of Ophthalmology & Visual Sciences • 614-293-5287 • Research@osumc.edu

Study looking to understand variation in eye pressure and glaucoma drug response.

Principal Investigator:
Sayoko E. Moroi, MD, PhD

Study Includes :

- Up to 8 Office Visits, up to 6 or 7 hours
- Study length up to 3 months
- Compensation included

Inclusion Criteria:

- 30 years or older with glaucoma or high eye pressures
- Willing to remove contact lenses during study

Exclusion criteria:

- Women who are pregnant or breastfeeding
- Taking more than 2 glaucoma medications
- Inflammation in the eyes
- Taking oral steroids or eye steroids
- Any eye surgeries
- Slow heart rate, severe asthma, or emphysema

This research is not being conducted by the Columbus Chalmers P. Wiley Ambulatory Care Center. The research has not been reviewed by the Institutional Review Board of the Chalmers P. Wiley VA. The VA is not responsible for any costs incurred by participating in the research study.