

JOB DESCRIPTION

The Director of the Medical Student Research Program will have responsibility for planning and implementation of activities to promote robust student research education, training and career development activities that will achieve distinction in program quality and outcomes. Responsibilities of this position include oversight and monitoring of trainee outcomes and preparation of an NIH T35 application to support short-term medical student research training. The responsibilities of this position align with the LCME Standard 3.2 Community of Scholars/Research Opportunities and LCME Standard 7.3 Scientific Method/Clinical/Translational Research. The co-director will be assisted by program administrative staff and other research education faculty and will receive 0.1 FTE support. This position reports to the Associate Dean for Physician Scientist Education & Training. Apply Here

JOB DESCRIPTION

The Co-Director of the Postdoctoral Physician Scientist Development Program will develop a centralized research education and training experience for physician scientist residents/fellows with aspirations of a physician scientist career. Responsibilities of this position include oversight and monitoring of trainee outcomes and preparation of an NIH T32 application to support postdoctoral physician scientist training. The co-director will be assisted by program administrative staff and other research education faculty and will receive 0.1 FTE support. This position reports to the Associate Dean for Physician Scientist Education & Training. Apply Here

RESEARCH
MEANS HOPE

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY COLLEGE OF MEDICINE