The faculty members honored with the Courage to Teach designation are faculty committed to the humanistic teaching of the medical school curriculum. They love to teach and they enjoy working with emerging physicians.

Can you identify the Courage to Teach faculty member from the description on the following slides?
★ His father was a correspondent for the The New York Times and served as a wonderful role model to this Courage to Teach faculty member.

★ He loves teaching and watching students and residents grow both personally and professionally through the medical education process.

★ He finds joy in time spent with his wife (also an OSU physician) and two children.

★ He is indebted to his surgical colleagues for their mentorship and support of his career.

★ Keep reading to find out who has the “Courage to Teach” ...
His hobbies include flying, collecting art, playing piano and skiing.

He came to OSU COM so that he could not only practice surgery but so that he could make a difference in the lives of residents, students and fellows. His many teaching awards attest to the fact that he is fulfilling that dream.

Keep reading to find out who has the “Courage to Teach”...