FAME session for Professional Ethics Competency

2018-19 Calendar

To register for any of the FAME programs, go to buckeyelearn.osu.edu

Book Discussion - Speed of Trust: The One Thing That Changes Everything, by Steven Covey

Tuesday, August 21, 2018, 12-1pm
233 Meiling Hall
NCH Room: FB5C.1 (Faculty Office Building)
Primary Audience: All Faculty
Aligns to FAME Competencies: Professional Ethics; Relationship Management

This book demonstrates how to trust the people while also showing how to let go of old patterns of behavior in order to trust others. Brown bag lunch session. Register by August 20.

Fall New Faculty Retreat

Tuesday, September 11, 2018, 8am-12pm
115 Biomedical Research Tower
Primary Audience: New Faculty
Aligns to FAME Competencies: Professionalism & Technical Skills; Professional Ethics

You know where to park and where the cafeteria is, now learn what it takes to launch a successful career in academic medicine. In this session you will learn about resources, tools, and strategies to define key elements of success and achieve your career goals (formerly called COM New Faculty Orientation). Breakfast provided. Register by September 6.

Faculty Profile: Raphael Pollock, MD, PhD

Monday, October 8, 2018 12-1pm
L035 James Cancer Hospital Auditorium
Primary Audience: All Faculty
Aligns to FAME Competencies: Career Mentoring; Organizational Awareness; Professional Ethics

In Faculty Profiles, our most highly rated series, senior faculty members share the wisdom of experience with an audience of colleagues from throughout the medical center. "Motivating," "Inspiring," "Great tips," are just a few of the comments this series receives. Dr. Pollock is a Professor of Surgery and Director of the Comprehensive Cancer Center. Lunch provided. Register by October 3.

Register at buckeyelearn.osu.edu
Second Victim Syndrome: Recognition and Recovery
Wednesday, November 7, 2018, 5-6:30pm
B050 James Cancer Hospital
Primary Audience: Clinical Faculty
CME: This event is certified for 1 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit
Aligns to FAME Competencies: Culture Awareness; Giving & Receiving Feedback; Professional Ethics

Members of the health care team are at risk for second victim syndrome related to errors and unanticipated adverse events. Facilitator Jennifer Mitzman, MD, Assistant Professor of Emergency Medicine, combines personal narrative and literature-based best practices. Participants will discuss predictable risk factors and strategies for quick intervention to minimize long lasting impact and maximize recovery. Dinner provided. Register by November 1.

Faculty Profile: Wendy Frankel, MD
Monday, December 10, 2018, 12-1pm
L045 James Cancer Hospital
Primary Audience: All Faculty
Aligns to FAME Competencies: Career Mentoring; Organizational Awareness; Professional Ethics

In Faculty Profiles, our most highly rated series, senior faculty members share the wisdom of experience with an audience of colleagues from throughout the medical center. "Motivating," "Inspiring," "Great tips," are just a few of the comments this series receives. Dr. Frankel is a Professor and Chair of the Department of Pathology. Lunch provided. Register by December 6.

Book Discussion – No Ego: How Leaders Can Cut the Cost of Workplace Drama, End Entitlement, and Drive Big Results, by Cy Wakeman
Wednesday, December 12, 2018, 12-1pm
233 Meiling Hall
NCH Room: FB5C.1 (Faculty Office Building)
Primary Audience: All Faculty
Aligns to FAME Competencies: Leading Productive Teams; Professional Ethics; Culture Awareness

This book will help to recognize how much time and energy are wasted by workplace drama and will show ways to overcome and to maximize the benefits of this knowledge. Brown bag lunch session. Register by December 11.

Faculty Profile: Peter Mohler, PhD
Tuesday, January 29, 2019, 12-1pm
L035 James Cancer Hospital Auditorium
Primary Audience: All Faculty
Aligns to FAME Competencies: Career Mentoring; Organizational Awareness; Professional Ethics

In Faculty Profiles, our most highly rated series, senior faculty members share the wisdom of experience with an audience of colleagues from throughout the medical center. "Motivating," "Inspiring," "Great tips," are just a few of the comments this series receives. Dr. Mohler is Vice Dean for Research and Chair of the Department of Physiology and Cell Biology. Lunch Provided. Register by January 25.
Book Discussion– Happiness Advantage: Seven Principles of Positive Psychology, by Shawn Achor
Wednesday, February 20, 2019, 12-1pm
233 Meiling Hall
NCH Room: FB5C.1 (Faculty Office Building)
Primary Audience: All Faculty
Aligns to FAME Competencies: Professional Ethics; Influence & Networking; Relationship Management

This book introduces readers to positive psychology principles and demonstrates how to incorporate strategies into one’s daily life to improve well-being. Brown bag lunch session. Register by February 19.

Faculty Profile: Claire Verschraegen, MD
Tuesday, March 5, 2019, 12-1pm
115 Biomedical Research Tower
Primary Audience: All Faculty
Aligns to FAME Competencies: Career Mentoring; Organizational Awareness; Professional Ethics

In Faculty Profiles, our most highly rated series, senior faculty members share the wisdom of experience with an audience of colleagues from throughout the medical center. "Motivating," "Inspiring," "Great tips," are just a few of the comments this series receives. Dr. Verschraegen is a Professor and Director of the Division of Medical Oncology. Lunch Provided. Register by March 1.

Advancing to Associate Professor on the Tenure Track
Thursday, March 7, 2019, 3:30-4:30pm
L045 James Cancer Hospital
Primary Audience: Assistant Professors on Tenure Track
Aligns to FAME Competencies: Goal Setting; Career Mentoring; Culture Awareness; Professional Ethics; Relationship Management

An expert panel of tenure-track faculty will share tips and strategies for using strengths to carve out a unique area of expertise and leverage it to gain a reputation in your field. Register by March 5.

Spring New Faculty Retreat
Tuesday, April 2, 2019, 8am-12pm
L045 James Cancer Hospital
Primary Audience: New Faculty
Aligns to FAME Competencies: Professionalism & Technical Skills; Professional Ethics

You know where to park and where the cafeteria is, now learn what it takes to launch a successful career in academic medicine. In this session you will learn about resources, tools, and strategies to define key elements of success and achieve your career goals. The Spring Retreat is for faculty members hired since September and for those who weren’t able to attend the fall retreat. Breakfast provided. Register by March 28.

There’s No Crying in Medicine
Wednesday, April 3, 2019, 5:30-7pm
L045 James Cancer Hospital
Primary Audience: Clinical Faculty
CME: This event is certified for 1 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit

Register at buckeyelearn.osu.edu
Complications and poor clinical outcomes can have significant impact on physician well-being. This interactive session explores how clinicians can increase their resilience and overcome adversity, taught from the personal experience of Daniel Eiferman, MD, Associate Professor of Surgery. Dinner Provided. Register by April 1.

What to Do With a Close Score
Tuesday, April 9, 2019, 10-11am
B050 James Cancer Hospital
Primary Audience: All Research Faculty
Aligns to FAME Competencies: Giving & Receiving Feedback, Organizational Awareness; Outcomes; Professional Ethics
Your grant received a good score but was not funded. Now what? Panelists discuss tips and strategies to successfully resubmit including reaching out to the program officer, responding to reviewer comments, and repackaging the submission. Register by April 5.

Vital Talk: Mastering Tough Conversations
Tuesday, April 23, 2019, 8am-5pm
Prior Hall – Clinical Skills Center
Primary Audience: Clinical Faculty
Aligns to FAME Competencies: Culture Awareness; Giving & Receiving Feedback; Professional Ethics
This intensive 1-day course helps clinicians enhance communication skills around serious illness to produce medical care plans that match patient and family values. The course provides clinicians with specific frameworks and tools for communicating with patients during difficult care conversations including advance care planning, discussing prognosis, late goals of care, requests for treatments with minimal efficacy, and conducting family conferences. Training results in immediate, significant and lasting improvement to the medical practitioner’s ability to address patient and family needs for serious illness care. Breakfast and lunch provided. Space is limited to 12, Register by April 15.

Faculty Profile: Clara Bloomfield, MD
Wednesday, May 1, 2019, 12-1pm
L045 James Cancer Hospital
Primary Audience: All Faculty
Aligns to FAME Competencies: Career Mentoring; Organizational Awareness; Professional Ethics
In Faculty Profiles, our most highly rated series, senior faculty members share the wisdom of experience with an audience of colleagues from throughout the medical center. "Motivating," "Inspiring," "Great tips," are just a few of the comments this series receives. Dr. Bloomfield is the William Greenville Pace III Chair in Cancer Research. Lunch Provided. Register by April 26.