

FAME: Your Career, Our Guidance

Issue 137

April 2018

FAME Faculty Development Tip

To gain focus and set intentions before your next meeting, spend a few moments reflecting on the qualities of the people you are about to meet, be they colleagues, learners, patients or a partner. Learn more about this research by Mayo Clinic physician, Dr. Amit Sood at, stressfree.org and through his engaging Tedx video

I n T h i

News

FAME Events

Events and Seminars

Nominations and Proposals

FAME Resources

More Resources

N E W S

Learning Communities Small Group Leaders Opportunity

Please consider joining the exciting Learning Communities Program at OSU. We are now recruiting attending physicians for Learning Communities Small Group Leaders. We are looking for 17-34 OSU physicians to be paired with small groups of 10-12 medical students, to meet regularly and discuss professional development and mentorship topics in a longitudinal fashion. Feel free to contact Brett Worly, or Barbara Ferguson, if you are interested or have questions.

Dr. Jill Heathcock Awarded Fulbright

Jill C. Heathcock MPT, PhD Associate Professor of Health and Rehabilitation Sciences, was awarded a Fulbright scholarship for faculty to support international exchange. Dr. Heathcock focused on indicators of health and disability of infants and mothers at the Hôpital Jeanne de Flandres and Université de Lille II, droit et santé in Lille France.

HEED Reception

Please join us as Lenore Pearlstein, owner and publisher of Insight Into Diversity, bestows recognition to The Ohio State University as being the first University to have three Colleges receive the Higher Education Excellence in Diversity (HEED) Award. The 2017 HEED Award will be presented to The OSU College of Nursing, College of Veterinary Medicine, and College of Medicine on April 20, from 2:00 p.m. to 4 p.m. at the Ross Hospital Auditorium.

The 2017 Insight Into Diversity Higher Education Excellence in Diversity \(HEED\) Award. This award recognizes colleges and universities that demonstrate outstanding commitment to diversity and inclusion.

Health Sciences Library Newsletter

The Health Sciences Library has published its March 2018 newsletter highlighting VisualDX, redesigned subject guides, and My NCBI. Access the newsletter.

Dr. Roy Appointed

Sashwati Roy was appointed to NIH's Center for Scientific Review's Surgery, Anesthesiology and Trauma Study Section for a four-year term.

ADVANCE Faculty Research Series Featuring Dorota Grejner-Brzezinska

Please join us for "The Road to Success is Always Under Construction" Featuring Dorota A. Grejner-Brzezinska, PhD. On Monday, April 14 from 4-5 pm in the Research Commons, 18th Ave. Library, 3rd Floor. Dr. Grejner-Brzezinska is the associate dean for research in the College of Engineering and the Lowber B. Strange Endowed Professor in the Department of Civil, Environmental and Geodetic Engineering. She is also director of the university's Satellite Positioning and Inertial Navigation (SPIN) Laboratory. Contact Katie Musson or visit advance.osu.edu for more information.

Charity Golf Outing

PODEMOS, an interprofessional student organization here at OSU, is hosting its Third Annual Charity Golf Tournament on April 28th at Safari Golf Club in Dublin! Proceeds from this event will go toward the purchase of medications to help PODEMOS fulfill its mission of providing sustainable healthcare and supplies for rural communities in Honduras. Registration for the event as well as donations can be done online. Registration includes 18 holes with a golf cart rental, a free t-shirt, lunch buffet, and a chance to win awesome prizes! Individuals and businesses can sponsor a hole or purchase advertising space. If you have any questions, please contact us. Hope to see you there!

F A M E E V E N T S

FRIDAY, APRIL 6

Med Ed Series: Clinical Competency Committees: Purposes and Best Practices

12-1 pm

L045 James Cancer Hospital

Primary Audience: All Educators involved in Medical Education including UME, GME, and Faculty Development

CME: This event is certified for 1 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit

Aligns to FAME Competencies: Leading Productive Teams; Giving & receiving Feedback; Outcomes

The ACGME requires programs to develop Clinical Competency Committees (CCCs) to determine trainee progression on milestones and promotion decisions, which represents and opportunity to broaden the role of faculty in the training process. During this engaging presentation, Drs. Scott Holliday and Rebecca Wallihan will teach participants more about the role of CCCs. Program directors will share experiences improving educational outcomes for trainees. Lunch will be provided (James Location). RSVP by April 4: buckeyelearn.osu.edu

MONDAY, APRIL 9

Social Media in Medicine

12-1 pm

L045 James Cancer Hospital

Primary Audience: All Faculty

CME: This event is certified for 1 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit

Aligns to FAME Competencies: Influencing & Networking; Impact

This session will feature three faculty members expert in using social media as a resource for academic progress and as a tool to support diversity and representation for women and minorities in academia. Led by Drs. Christina Arnold, Darrell Gray and Drew Shirley. Lunch Provided. This event is sponsored by WIMS and open to all faculty. Register by April 5: buckeyelearn.osu.edu

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 11

Best Practices in Mentoring

4-5 pm

L045 James Cancer Hospital

Primary Audience: Associate and Full Professors

CME: This event is certified for 1 AMA PRA Category 2 Credits

Aligns to FAME Competencies: Career Mentoring; Giving & Receiving Feedback; Relationship Management; Goal Setting

Participate in a discussion with FAME Director of Mentoring Dr. Steven Steinberg, regarding best practices, common scenarios and challenges to help your junior faculty colleagues thrive. Register by April 10: buckeyelearn.osu.edu

TUESDAY, APRIL 17

FAME Spring Seminar: Everything P&T

8 am - 12 pm

115 Biomedical Research Tower

Primary Audience: All Faculty

CME: This event is certified for 1 AMA PRA Category 2 Credits

Aligns to FAME Competencies: Outcomes; Organizational Awareness; Influence & Networking

We will delve into all aspects of the promotion system including national reputation, demonstrating impact, and writing a dossier. The program concludes with a mock departmental P&T committee meeting so participants can see how different faculty tracks and paths are evaluated. Breakfast provided. Register by April 13: buckeyelearn.osu.edu

TUESDAY, APRIL 24

Faculty Profile - Rebecca Jackson, MD

12-1pm

105 Biomedical Research Tower

Primary Audience: All Faculty

Aligns to FAME Competencies: Career Mentoring; Organizational Awareness; Professional Ethics

Faculty profiles share the personal and professional stories of senior faculty members as an opportunity for other faculty members to glean insights and make connections. Rebecca Jackson, MD, is Director of the Center for Clinical and Translational Science, Associate Dean for Clinical Research and Professor of Internal Medicine (Endocrinology). Lunch Provided. Register by April 20: buckeyelearn.osu.edu

FRIDAY, MAY 4

FAME Med Ed Series: (SDL Series) Helping Learners Diagnose Their Learning Needs

12-1pm

L045 James Cancer Hospital

Primary Audience: All Educators involved in Medical Education including UME, GME and Faculty Development

CME: This event is certified for 1 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit

Aligns to FAME Competencies: Giving & Receiving Feedback; Outcomes

This presentation will focus on a number of techniques to best develop the skills of learners to be able to effectively diagnose their learning needs, contrast the challenges in developing these skills in student/trainees versus those in established practitioners, and for instructors to know that their learners are gaining proficiency in this important skill. Lunch will be provided (James Location), Register by May 2: buckeyelearn.osu.edu

TUESDAY, MAY 15

How to Survive in a Lean Funding Climate

3-4pm

B030 James Cancer Hospital

Primary Audience: Research Faculty

Aligns to FAME Competencies: Persuasion & Negotiation; Organizational Awareness; Relationship Management; Outcomes

Obtaining the funds required to pursue your research goals can be formidable, especially with the competitive nature of NIH grant funding. This panel discussion with Drs. Megan Ballinger, Elliott Crouser, Tania Oberyszyn and Jacob Yount will point out strategies to maximize your chances for NIH funding and to keep your lab afloat in the meantime. Register by May 14: buckeyelearn.osu.edu

WEDNESDAY, MAY 16

Book Discussion- Being Mortal: Medicine and What Matters in the End by Atul Gawande

12-1pm

NCH - Room ED138

OSU - Streaming/Discussion Room - B040 James Cancer Hospital

Primary Audience: All Faculty

Aligns to FAME Competencies: Professional Ethics

Atul Gawande describes medicine's role in the modern experience of mortality. With his trademark mix of perceptiveness and sensitivity, Gawande examines his experiences as a surgeon and those of his patients and family, and learns to accept the limits of what he can do. Please bring your lunch and join the discussion whether or not you've read the book. Register by May 15: buckeyelearn.osu.edu

E V E N T S a n d S E M

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 4

Medicine and the Arts presents: The Women of Country Music:

A Musical Presentation Featuring Dr. Steven Gabbe

12-1pm

Meiling Hall #112

In addition to being the former CEO of the OSU Wexner Medical Center and a professor of obstetrics and gynecology, Dr. Steve Gabbe is well known for his knowledge of music of all kinds. Today, Dr. Gabbe will be sharing his love of country music with us. Please join us for this very special Medicine and the Arts event.

TUESDAY, APRIL 24

CCTS Presents - Tools off the Trade: Engaging Stakeholders in Research

9am-3pm

The OSU Center for Clinical and Translational Science presents "Tools of the Trade: Engaging Stakeholders in Research" from 9:00am - 3:00pm on April 24, 2018, in the Biomedical Research Tower or via live stream. The morning interactive workshop, "Co-Designing with Communities," will introduce participants to the value of bringing stakeholders in at the beginning stages of research and engaging their stakeholders throughout the entire research process. The afternoon will include presentations from community stakeholders and researchers describing their experiences and best strategies for productive stakeholder involvement. Register online or contact Heather Mesko-Ryba for more information.

FRIDAY, APRIL 20 & SATURDAY, APRIL 21

Methods for Clustered Data in SPSS, HLM, and R
Advanced Methods Workshop

Analysis Methods for Clustered and Hierarchical Data
with Ann A. O'Connell, Professor of Quantitative Research, Evaluation & Measurement, OSU, and Director, EHE Research Methodology Center. Click here for information.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 20

The Office of Evaluation, Curriculum Research and Development, COM
2018 Spring Symposium
7:30am-3:30pm
Meiling Hall

This daylong event focusing on teaching skills in the clinical setting and faculty development. The theme for the 2018 Spring Symposium is Learning Environments and will feature two plenary speakers, Larry Gruppen, PhD and Lisa MacLean, MD, both leaders in the field of Learning Environments. An agenda for the day and information on additional workshops will be available on the OECD website. For more information please contact Emily McCartney or RSVP.

C A L L f o r N O M I N

Call for Nominations: AAMC Awards

The AAMC awards program honors individuals and organizations making significant contributions to improve the health of all. Awardees are honored at a formal dinner held during Learn Serve Lead: The AAMC Annual Meeting. Awards include the Abraham Flexner Award for Distinguished Service to Medical Education, the Alpha Omega Alpha Robert J. Glaser Distinguished Teacher Awards, and the Award for Distinguished Research in the Biomedical Sciences, among others. Nominations close in one month.

Read More

F A M E R E S O U R C E

The Ohio State University Center for Faculty Advancement, Mentoring and Engagement has hosted several recent faculty development sessions. For resources from previous programs, click here. For best results, please access through Google Chrome.

M O R E R E S O U R C E

Lead. Serve. Inspire. Educational Technology Support: Want to try a new technology in your teaching? Looking for assistance with your Articulate e-learning module? Get started with your next educational technology adventure by contacting the EdTech Team.

Email: edtech@osumc.edu | Web: go.osu.edu/oomedtech | Phone: 614-685-5381 | Twitter: @OECDRD

The FAME Concierge can direct you to the appropriate tools and resources you need for career development. Additionally, career development resources, an event calendar and resources are available online.